Group Project Grading Rubric

1. each team member is delegated responsibilities and is held accountable.
2. job assignments must be equal among all team members to be binding.
3. An equal difficulty of work is to be assigned among all team members.
4. a manifest (list) of assigned duties is created before work begins. The manifest acts contractually, in a binding manner.
5. In cases where team dissatisfaction exists, an email is to be sent to the instructor, via CPP email. The instructor will ask for the manifest, and grade the project for each student individually according to items as they stand, on the manifest.
